

Anita Swamy, MD
Medical Director and Program Co-Director
Chicago Children's Diabetes Center at La Rabida

Anita Swamy, MD, brings proven program development and patient care experience to the medical directorship of the Chicago Children's Diabetes Center (CCDC) at La Rabida, Chicago's only certified pediatric diabetes program.

A board-certified endocrinologist, Dr. Swamy joined the CCDC at La Rabida fall as the Medical Director and Program Co-Director. As Medical Director, Dr. Swamy oversees the quality of medical care delivered to patients, the implementation and evaluation of all patient-focused programs, and medical education and physician outreach activities of the clinical staff.

As CCDC Co-Director, Dr. Swamy works closely with Co-Director Rose Briars, NC, PNP-BC, CDE, to establish and execute clinical policies, helping to ensure the center's 15-person interdisciplinary experts and support staff function as a team to deliver holistic and family-centered care to nearly 1,000 patients.

She also has provider responsibilities at the CCDC and is an attending physician in the division of Endocrinology at Children's Memorial Hospital.

Dr. Swamy previously served as Director for another large pediatric diabetes program in Chicago. There, she built a comprehensive program that now serves hundreds of children with Type I and Type II diabetes.

A sought after presenter for medical conferences and advocate for children with diabetes, Dr. Swamy's medical educational training and diabetes experience and honors include:

- Outstanding Endocrine Fellow Award, University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio, May 2008 while serving as Pediatric Endocrinology Fellow, 2006-2008
- Recipient, Endocrine Fellow Foundation Grant to attend Preceptorship, Children's Hospital, Los Angeles, November 2007
- Pediatric Endocrinology Fellow, Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh, 2005-2006
- Pediatric Resident, University of Virginia, 2002 - 2005
- Doctor of Medicine Degree, Medical College of Pennsylvania, Hahnemann University Philadelphia, 2002
